Check Puzzle

Reed's Teachers Will Tap Funds From Next Year

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Reed School District will be dated a day later than normal to resolve a cash shortage, according to an agreement made today in a conference at the Civic Center.

Reed Supt. Edward C. Pino, Asst. County Schools Supt. Robert Stannard, and County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell agreed this would solve the problem of insufficient cash to cover the district's June 30 payroll.

Mitchell verified that the district was still "in the black" if all anticipated accruals are taken into account.

LOAN REQUESTED

The cash shortage came to light Friday when Pino asked for a $50,000 county loan to carry the district payroll through the end of the fiscal year (June 30)

The request, coming at an unusual time, led Mitchell to check the cash balance. He found that there was not enough to meet the payroll.

By delaying issuance of the checks from June 30 to July 1, they will be written against anticipated revenues next fiscal year instead of this fiscal year,

TAXES DELINQUENT Pino told the Independent-Journal that the difficulties were due to an unusually high delinquency in property taxes in Reed District this year. The average from past years has been a 3 per cent deficiency. he said. The budget for this fiscal years was geared to ar. estimated 4 per cent deficiency. The actual deficiency was 8.35 per cent, Pino said. The budget had $25,000 set up for cash reserves. This was not enough to make up the cash difference, Pin said.

Pino and Mitchell both said they would recommend to trustees that there be a higher reserve in the budget for next fis-

Mitchell said that under the state education code he must recommend that district tax rates be fixed on the basis of a 10 per cent deficiency in property taxes.

Both Stannard and Pino said, however, that this is not followed in setting up school district budgets.

Asst. County Counsel Richard V. Godino said he would research the state code to see precisely what the budgeting re- ed to a week of treatment at the quirements are in relation to University of California Medical tax delinquency.

Pino said there was no "fiscal irresponsibility" on the part the Reed District.

Mitchell said it was a matter of "cutting too fine" on cash

More Budget Reviews Due Tomorrow

Marin County supervisors, at the half-way point in budget deliberations, will continue review of the 25-million-dollar budget tomorrow afternoon.

The assessor's budget will be up for discussion when the board convenes at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Civic Center. At 2:30 p.m. the much-debated promotion and development budget will be discussed. County administrator Alan Bruce has recommended that $50,000, to be divided among chambers of commerce and other promotion groups, be withheld until each group can give an account of how the money is to be used.

The board expects a good turnout at 8 p.m. Wednesday when a special meeting on the airport budget has been scheduled. This was originally set over to Thursday afternoon, but the time was changed to give a whole evening to the discussion after representative of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce asked full hearing of a plan for eral plan will be discussed. a parallel runway at Hamilton Air Force Base.

DEMONSTRATOR NOT PASSIVE

An unidentified cleryman participating in yesterday's protest march and sit-in in Chicago, struggles with policeman at busy intersection of State and Madison streets. More than 200 marchers were arrested when they suddenly stormed off the sidewalk while they were marching to the City Hall, and sat in street. Target of the protest is Chicago School Supt. Benjamin Willis, blamed for "de facto" segregation in the city's schools.

together.

The Civic Center bond election results were gratifying in many respects. The one discordant note was poor voter

By a narrow margin, voters authorized the issuance of $7,750,000 in bonds to finance a new hall of justice wing that is designed to meet the space needs for courts, jail, and law enforcement facilities through 1990. It is being hailed as the first countywide bond issue to pass in 40 years.

And construction can be accomplished with a tax rate that is lower than under pay-as-you-go because the cost will be spread out over a 25-year period and borne in part by future users of the building.

The design of the new wing will be in keeping with the famed Frank Lloyd Wright structure. And best of all, the cost of construction will be far less per square foot than the new San Francisco Hall of Justice or the Sonoma County Hall of Justice.

It is well known that among domes-

All of this is cause for joy. But that joy is dampened by the miserable turnout which found 46,192 eligible voters staying away from the polls, leaving 21,745 to make the decision

The bonds can be issued and construction can now proceed. But with only a 28 per cent turnout, we can never be certain that this was the real mandate of the people, although we would hope that a bigger turnout would have only increased the size of the margin.

At one time, Marin County had the reputation of casting the highest percentage of votes in the state. The 28 per cent turnout for a special election certainly is not the worst showing in the state, but it is nothing at all for an enlightened, articulate and civic minded Marin County to be proud of.

Three cheers to the minority of voters for their forward-looking decision, and a round of boos to the majority who failed to exercise their rights.

Salary Lists In Poor Taste

Editor, Independent-Journal: I believe your current series listing the individual salaries of county workers and school district personnel is not only ridiculous but a probable invasion of privacy. And, if not an invasion of privacy, it is at least in very poor taste.

While it is true that this information is available to anyone requesting it, I feel it is entirely unnecessary to publish individual salaries in the newspapers. If your purpose is to show where our monies go, couldn't this be accomplished Belong Together by showing salary ranges of positions? If your purpose is to show that teachers are miserably underpaid, your point well to plant more and more trees. Taxes Too Much For Home, Family Editor, Independent-Journal: I believe the family and the home is the most important unit of our society. It is the foundation upon which our nation is built. The property tax situation in Marin County undermines the stability of our homes through confiscatory taxation. How can we plan intelligently when we are threatened with the loss of our homes in the future? I know of places where the appraisals have increased 500 per cent in 10 years. Are we to be penalized as home owners while the speculators are rewarded? Our representatives are elected to represent us. . . . Have they done it? ter June 9 from C. Almada and also to the letter June 1 from A. C. Thomas. Both assume that local property taxes make it difficult for a family wage earner to acquire and keep a home. Certainly it seems this way at first glance. . . . But anyone whose interest lies in acquiring property for a homesite should consider the matter from the viewpoint of that other property owner, the one from whom one must buy the lot on which to build the house. Is it likely that he will pass any tax saving on to the customers for his land? More likely, without tax pressure he will decide not to sell at any price.

This is in answer to the let-

What benefit is it then to the potential homebuilder to be free of property tax when there are no sites for sale? The price of land is always paid in full by the user, either to the government in taxes or to the property owner in purchase price. So there are really two kinds of property owners. There are those who are concerned with keeping property which they are using and there are those who are concerned with keeping to themselves, unused, property which others want to use. It is the latter kind of property owner who comprises the backbone of various tax-paying objection associations. A homeowner has no common economic interest with the land speculator, though he may often enough be an unwitting accomplice. R. J. O'DONNELL

Israel's Economic Miracle Puts Some Light On Arab Relations

see why 100 million Arabs FEEL afraid of two an onehalf million Israelis.

no valid reason to be fearful.

THE REASON: The Israelis have performed an economic and social miracle in half a generation-and more is in the making.

They have transformed the most sterile and resource-poor tiny slice of the Middle East into a promising land.

It is a marvel to most of the world. It is a source of envy and apprehension to Arabs who wish it had never been born

Israel is here to say. President Habib Bourguiba of Tunisia now dares to say this openly and other Arab leaders may be saying the same thing before long. This is only a minute patch of light on the vast cloud of Arab-Israeli hostility, but a breakthrough in Arab-Israeli relations is possible. It is bound to be slow and halting.

ISRAEL IS a threat to none of its neighbors, if the Arabs wish to live in peace—and let Israel live in peace. Israel has too much to do to make war on its neighbors and is doing it too successfully to do so. This is the strongest reason why the Arab nations have no valid cause to be fearful.

The Israelis are unquestionably tough and strong, tenacious and determined. It would be unsafe to molest them and I suspect that President Gamal Abdel Nasser knows it just as well as President Bourguiba.

And Israel is not going to molest anybody else. They are intent on building the promising land.

IT IS ONLY 17 years since

JERUSALEM - Now I can the United Nations put the sceptre of rulership in the hands of these modern Jewish pioneers and they, like Moses, And, I am convinced, have have built on faith-plus work and wit and will. Theodore Herzl, the founder of Zionism, did not live to see his galvanic prophecy come true: "If you will it, it is no dream."

You have to see this miracle at firsthand to believe it. Wherever I look-at eroded land made useful and productive, at barren hills made green with trees, at new cities, new ports, new factories, and college classrooms crowded with students-I am haunted by the American song, "Did You Ever See a Dream Walking?"

Theodore Herzl was certain it would be no dream. It isn't. It's reality. And Israel isn't walking. It is running.

ISRAEL HAS been running since the day it was founded in 1948.

The Israelis were given a barren soil woefully short of water and in 15 years increased their arable land by 360

They have generated a dynamic economy which has an average growth rate of 10 per cent per year-never under 8 per cent, never over 12. This has outdistanced Japan, the European Common Market, the United States and the Soviet Union.

Israel has increased its population more than threefold in 17 years and the standard of living has gone up steadily. Its problem today is not an uneven distribution of income, but a too even distribution of income, lacking adequate rewards for special and distinctive skills and talents.

IT IS THE promising land with every prospect of more fulfillment ahead.

Soviet Jet Build-Up In North Viet Nam

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON-An ominous big build-up of jet bombers and late-model MIG fighters is in full swing in North Viet

In recent weeks, crates containing an estimated 150 of these combat planes have been unloaded at Haiphong, principal port, by Soviet bloc freighters. The crates are being hauled to airfields around Hanoi and Haiphong.

This has been disclosed by U. S. aerial reconnaissance.

IT HAS OBTAINED numerous photographs revealing a total of more than 500 of such crates. On the basis of their size and shape Air Force experts have informed Washington authorities the crates contain some 30 twin-jet IL-28 bombers and 120 interceptorfighters-probably MIG-21s.

Also, that these planes will be assembled and ready for operations in a month.

As North Viet Nam is known to have less than 100 combat pilots, intelligence anticipates the new aircraft "probably will be manned by Soviet bloc and Chinese volunteers."

PRESIDENT JOHNSON has been fully apprised of this sinister development.

One significance being stressed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff is that it means further direct Russian involvement in the Viet Nam conflict.

For this reason, the Penta-

They are advocating the warning be sent to Hanoi and Peiping-and not Moscow. THOSE ALMOST daily commencement and other speeches being poured out by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey are the work of a new ghost

This prolific backstage mastermind is Richard Goodwin, 32-year-old Bostonian and onetime law clerk of the late Justice Felix Frankfurter, who has had a kaleidoscopic career in the Kennedy and Johnson administrations.

Starting in 1961 as deputy assistant secretary of state for Latin America (with no experience there or knowledge of Spanish), Goodwin has ranged from the Peace Corps, to which he was shunted by State Department career officials, to 1964 campaign speech writer for Johnson, then to the White House as a "special assistant," and now on loan to Humphrey to grind out a stream of commencement, political and other rhetoric.

WHETHER THIS latest "assignment," as insiders label it, is permanent remains to be seen. On the surface it is apparently only temporary. Goodwin still retains his White House desk and continues on that payroll.

though the battle to put smog control devices on California automobiles has run into a few snags, it is a never-ending battle, and the state is going to try again.

The Legislature has passed S.B. 317, by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, which requires factory-equipped crankcase and exhaust devices on all new cars sold in 1966 or Other provisions are contained for exhaust devices. These must be on cars from 1955 to 1965 inclusive in control districts within the second year after the pollution control board approves two devices. A $65 cost ceiling for the devices is provided. The exhaust requirements do not apply to Sacramento and Contra Costa counties, nor to the eastern portions of San Bernardino and Riverside

Also, a crankcase device on crankcase and exhaust devices on all domestic and foreign 1968 and later new cars, and on non-diesel trucks and buses beginning in 1969. The California Highway Parol is empowered to make random roadside inspections, to make certain the devices are on the car. The bill also provides for more highway patrolmen for smog enforcement. Controls are tightened for inspection stations, giving the highway patrol power to suspend or revoke licenses required to inspect the devices. THE QUESTION, of course, when Gov. Edmund G. Brown signs the bill, will be to many people, "Do I have to install smog devices?" They will be required on used cars which are transferred. In other words, the Legislature has placed the burden on the used-car dealers rather than on the motorist himself.

However, it would appear that the safest practice may be to install the smog devices. The control apparatus is being required for a purpose, not to harass motorists. If the devices can lower the smog rate by even a small percentage, they may prove worth the legislation.

Continued air pollution in densely populated areas such as Los Angeles means the eventual harm to health and well-being of the people who live there.

HOW WELL smog control devices on automobiles will work is not yet known. But it is known that these devices will be of some benefit. Consequently it behooves the motorist to do his share in cutting down the air pollution.

U.N. And Alcatraz

Editor, Independent-Journal: Recent news tells us that Congress may soon give Alcatraz Island to the San Francisco chapter of the United Nations Assn., who in turn would make it it into a permanent memorial and an "international peace" symbol. Also, within a couple of weeks all sorts of distinguished persons will be in San Francisco to eulogize this supposedly won-

The first involved the space heroes who returned to earth after four days of orbit. What did they need most of all upon their return? Shaves!

"Oh, brave new world --"

THE SECOND disappointment came right here in Marin County during the five-hour planning commission hearing on the Marincello proposal. The build-up for this was just as great as for any space flight, and the bulky press kit handed out by publicist Jules Becker might well serve as a guideline for NASA in its next

The presentation by the Marincello team was beautifully done and most convincing. It became obvious long before the final hour that a planned community is something different. And the people who have all the advantages of a planned community will somehow be different.

One member of the team, Sanford Koretsky, who helped engineer the planned sewer systems for Marincello, even went so far as to say the planned effluent from the community would be "palatable."

He decided that this was not. perhaps, exactly the word he wanted and changed the phrase to "aesthetic effluent." He promised the effluent would not smell or anything.

Republicans' Underground Plan Presages Strange Party Future

lican leaders met recently in Washington and decided there was no sense pinning a Republican label on anybody running for local office. They encouraged John Lindsay to run as an "independent" for New York mayor, and even former Vice President Richard M. Nixon was quoted as saying that in cities where Democrats outnumber Republicans to the extent they do in New York "Republicans don't throw it into the voter's face, the fact that they're Republican."

THE WRITING IS on the wall and in a few years I can just see what will happen.

WASHINGTON-The Repub- Democrat from Minnesota, will get up on the Senate floor and, while he waves several sheets of paper, shout, "I hold in my hand a list of 153 card-carrying members of the Republican Party in the United States government and I ask this house what it intends to do about > "These are serious charges," Sen. Mike Mansfield says, "and while I am against witchhunting. I believe that if there are any Republicans in the United States government the American people should know about it.

his ground. "I have it on highest authority that Dwight D. Eisenhewer never resigned from the Republican Party and I have a photostat here of his party card." The Senate is in an uproar and the afternoon paper headines scream: "Dwight Eisenhower Accused of Being Member of Republican Party," "McCarthy Says Ike GOP Dupe," "Former President Named by McCarthy.'

THE COUNTRY can't believe it. McCarthy goes on television and says that Richard Nixon, George Romney, Ray Bliss and Nelson Rockefeller all have Republican backgrounds and he intends to prove it.

Nixon through his lawyer, Edward Bennett Williams, says, "Will I always be hounded for a mistake I made in my Romney, Rockefeller and Bliss say they're going to take the Fifth Amendment.

The McCarthy hearings open under the bright glare of the television cameras. He gets Dean Rusk to admit there are several Republicans in the State Department, but Rusk promises they will be weeded out. Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara admits there is a dentist in the Army who was a registered Republican, but he is not working in any security areas. FOR A WHILE the hearings go just the way McCarthy wants them to. But then he overplays his hand and on "Meet the Press" he says, "Mayor John Lindsay of New York City is a member of the Republican Party."

Lindsay, outraged and aware that McCarthy made his charges without congressional immunity, decides to sue for libel for $1 million.

The American Civil Liberties Union takes the case and, when McCarthy is unable to find anyone to testify that they knew Lindsay as a Republican, Lindsay wins the suit.

This gives the Senate courage to bring charges against McCarthy and he is censured by his peers.

WHEN THIS happens the witch-hunt is over and from then on the American people stop looking for Republicans under their beds.

$750 FOR 'BUSH' STORY

NEW YORK (P) - Wilt Chimberlain, star center of the Philadelphia 76ers, has been fined $750 by National Basketball Assn. President Walter Kennedy because of a magazine article which appeared under Chamberlain's byline.

Chamberlain's name appeared last April over a story in Sports Illustrated titled My Life in a Bush League. Kennedy said the article, critical of NBA owners and coaches, contained many wholly inaccurate statements of fact, all of which drew conclusion from an erroneous

Kennedy said that Chamberlain had told him on April 8 that he contemplated legal action against the magazine that made a public statement to that effect on April 9.

However, the NBA chief added, "by this time it appears that no legal action will be taken. Therefore, I have levied a fine of $750 on Chamberlain."

500 New York stock listings daily—direct to the I-J

A real advantage to the I-J reader—
"today's" closing prices published today. Quotations come direct by wire from United Press International. Selected Over-the-Counter stocks and Most Active Stocks also published daily.

Weekly range, New York Stocks

Each Saturday, the I-J augments its daily stock quotations with the full list of New York stocks, showing the weekly range of each. Another major reader service.

United Press International Telephoto Service

Now, in addition to A-P Wire Photo Service, the I-J brings UPI photographic coverage of the world as well . . . for broader selection of the top news pictures of the world today. Electronic impulses, coming by direct wire to the I-J newsroom, are turned into photographic images in a matter of minutes, whether from Africa, Asia or any spot on the globe.

Business & Finance Page

The I-J offers a complete business page combining local business news with that from top national sources. The I-J's business editor keeps you abreast of new businesses opening, business personalities on the local scene. Added feature: A-P Business Analyst Sam Dawson, writing with perspective on today's economic situation.

Complete A-P Sports Wire

Still another major news facility. The Associated Press complete sports wire offers worldwide sports coverage, plus A-P feature writers. The Sports Wire runs 22 hours a day . . . direct to the I-J Sports Department.

Sports Section doubled

With addition of the A-P Sports Wire, plus more local sports coverage, the I-J's Sports Section now brings you the full picture of sports today. The section has been virtually doubled within the past 3 months.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

A A 9 8 2

♦ A Q 9 5

♣ K 10 6 2

Answer: Pass.

330, San Rafael.

What do you say?

Do not dream of making a takeout double with length in the opponent's suit and marked shortness in the unbid major

For Sheinwold's 36-page booklet, "Pocket Guide to Bridge," send 50 cents to Bridge Book,

Don't Make It Obvious When You're In Trouble In Game

Little Red Riding Hood would have made a good bridge player. She didn't make a futile dash for the door when she found a wolf in her grandmother's bed.

She sweet-talked the wolf until she could make her escape. The same technique can be applied to many bridge hands.

The non-reader of fairy tales would find himself inside the wolf's belly at the end of today's hand.

FIRST TRICK He would win the first trick with the queen of clubs, draw two rounds of trumps and then lead the king of spades.

West takes the ace of spades and sees his prey escaping. The only hope is to take three diamond tricks at once, so West takes the ace of diamonds, continues with the queen of diamonds and then leads a third diamond to the king.

Yum-yum; a clumsy bridge player is a tasty morsel. HEROINE'S PLAY

Little Red Riding Hood would not be so obvious about her escape. She wins the first trick with the ace of clubs, thus convincing West that East has the queen of clubs.

Then our heroine draws trumps with the ace and queen and leads a spade from dummy to her own king.

West takes the ace of spades and sees that the contract is beaten even if South has the king of diamonds.

NO NEED There is no need to lead diamonds at once since West can put his partner in with the queen of clubs to lead a diamond. West leads a low club, whereupon Little Red Riding Hood wins with the queen of clubs, cashes the jack of spades, and gets to dummy with a trump to discard two diamonds on the queen and ten of spades.

If you can think quickly enough, roast wolf is a fine dish.

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) - Sunday night's ABC-TV documentary about race driver Phil Hill and the Le Mans Grand Prix may have been thrilling to fans, but for those who don't care whether a Ford beats a Ferrari it seems pretty much of a bore.

What was missing from the one-hour program about the 1964 French road race, "Phil Hill: Assault on Le Mans," was the depth of approach needed to illuminate the man, the event and the sport itself to viewers who aren't particularly interested in any of the three, but are willing to be. This viewer, for instance, isn't interested at all 2:00-KTIM Newspaper of Air in the fiddling around of mechanics. In fact, every time I see them I think of how my car broke down between here 4:00-KTIM Newspaper of the and Las Vegas and all the money they took me for, and I don't feel friendly at all. I am sure logically unfit to admire auto mechanics.
